GREAT HAUL IN CHINA

Suns, GWS keen to play Port in historic first game next season - and establish new turf

MICHELANGELO RUCCI
CHIEF FOOTBALL WRITER
SHANGHAI

PORT ADELAIDE has a greater challenge finding turf rather than an opponent for its great Chinese adventure next year.

Power club president David Koch yesterday inspected the 40,000-capacity Shanghai Stadium knowing the refit of the venue - removing the athletics track and laying out a field safe for AFL players - is the last piece to close his Chinese puzzle.

Port Adelaide is expected to convince an AFL rival to give up a home game to play the first AFL game for premier-ship points in China in May or June next season, around a mid-season bye.
